

SJRSC Dual Enrollment Frequently Asked Questions

What is dual enrollment?

*Students are earning high school credit and college credit at the same time, for free**

**paid for by SJCS D*

What types of dual enrollment can a student participate in at SJRSC?

Traditional dual enrollment and early admissions. The qualifications for all types of dual enrollment are the same. The deadline and process for submitting the dual enrollment packet to take courses at SJRSC are the same for all types of dual enrollment.

What is Early Admissions?

Early Admissions (college credit) an admission status, which is a form of dual enrollment, that allows a secondary student to enroll full-time (minimum of 12 credit hours) in courses that are creditable toward the high school diploma and the associate degree. The early admission program is limited to students who have completed a minimum of six semesters of full-time secondary enrollment and who meet all other admission criteria required of dual enrollment students. If students choose this option during senior year, they cannot take classes on the BHS campus.

Is there a maximum number of courses students can take?

Traditional Dual Enrollment students may take a maximum of ten (10) Dual Enrollment credit hours in the fall term, ten (10) Dual Enrollment credit hours in the spring term, and six (6) to eight (8) Dual Enrollment credit hours (a maximum of 2 courses total) for the summer term. Early admission Dual Enrollment students must take a minimum of twelve (12) and a maximum of sixteen (16) Dual Enrollment credit hours each fall and spring term

Can 9th graders participate in dual enrollment?

Per the St. Johns River State College & St. Johns County School District Articulation Agreement, "The St. Johns County School District and St. Johns River State College agree that eligible secondary students are entitled to participate in dual enrollment for a maximum of three years in college credit coursework at the 1000 and 2000 level."

What is FERPA?

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is a federal law that affords parents the right to have access to their children's education records, the right to seek to have the records amended, and the right to have some control over the disclosure of personally identifiable information from the education records. When a student turns 18 years old, or enters a postsecondary institution at any age, the rights under FERPA transfer from the parents to the student ("eligible student"). The FERPA statute is found at 20 U.S.C. § 1232g and the FERPA regulations are found at 34 CFR Part 99.

Do parents have access to the students dual enrollment course grades?

No. Students are expected to handle all communication because they are considered a college student. No one at SJRSC, including students' professors (teachers), can communicate with parents per the FERPA law.

are taking college classes, even if you will have an AA degree when you graduate from high school. High school seniors should ALWAYS check “First Time in College-Freshmen” box for college applications to be eligible for scholarships, housing, orientations, etc. Also if you check anything other than “First Time in College-Freshmen” they will assume you are an adult who took some random college classes (which doesn’t look great), instead of a high school student taking college classes (which does look great).
