Four-Year College or University

- Bachelor of Arts
 - Usually less specialized than a BS degree
 - Normally awarded in such areas as the languages, literature, other humanities and history
- Bachelor of Science
 - Typically involves technical fields
 - Normally awarded in such majors as the physical and biological sciences, engineering and agriculture
- Both degrees are equivalent academically

- Allows you to move into a management-level career in a specialized field
- Requires at least two years of study beyond a Bachelor's degree

Master's Degree

Doctorate Degree

- Examples:
 - Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)
 - Medical Doctor (M.D.)
 - Juris Doctor (lawyer, or J.D.)
 - Doctor of Education (Ed.D)
- Requires at least three years of school after college and sometimes many more.
- Allows the holder to practice a highly skilled profession

- Can join after obtaining a high school diploma
 - Immediately after high school or
 - Join ROTC while in college and then be commissioned as an officer after college graduation
- Offers many career and training opportunities
- Need to take the ASVAB during 11th or 12th grade year
 - ASVAB stands for the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery, which is a multiple-choice test that helps you identify which Army jobs (Military Occupational Specialties) would be best for you.

Summary

The Career Interest Profiler helps you find careers by mapping your interests to six basic types of personalities, together called the Holland Code. The higher you score, the more you are like that type.

What's Next

-  Take a look at the traits where you received your highest scores and then view the related careers for those types.
-  Consider your education and training aspirations. You have to level up your skills to break into any occupation. Different careers require different certification, licenses, and degrees. These can take anywhere from a few months to over 5 years. Filter related careers by education to find careers that match your needs.
-  You are unique. Not every career that matches a personality type will be a match to your interests, skills, aspirations, or desired lifestyle. The trick is to discover the
