Four-Year College or University

- Bachelor of Arts
 - Usually less specialized than a BS degree
 - Normally awarded in such areas as the languages, literature, other humanities and history
- Bachelor of Science
 - Typically involves technical fields
 - Normally awarded in such majors as the physical and biological sciences, engineering and agriculture
- Both degrees are equivalent academically

Master's Degree

Allows you to move into a management-level career in a specialized field

Requires at least two years of study beyond a Bachelor's degree

Doctorate Degree

- Examples:
 - Doctor of Philosophy (Ph.D.)
 - Medical Doctor (M.D.)
 - Juris Doctor (lawyer, or J.D.)
 - Doctor of Education (Ed.D)
- Requires at least three years of school after college and sometimes many more.
- Allows the holder to practice a highly skilled profession

- Can join after obtaining a high school diploma
 - Immediately after high school or
 - Join ROTC while in college and then be commissioned as an officer after college graduation
- Offers many career and training opportunities
- Need to take the ASVAB during 11th or 12th grade year
 - ASVAB stands for the Armed Services Vocational Aptitude Battery, which is a multiple-choice test that helps you identify which Army jobs (Military Occupational Specialties) would be best for you.
