St. Johns Technical High School

St. Johns Technical High School serves the district as a School of Choice providing an individualized and supportive learning environment for students grades 8 – 12. Many students who attend St. Johns Tech have an IEP or a 504 plan, but it is not a requirement. Class sizes are smaller than the average high school which can benefit students with academic or social needs. Transportation is provided to all students in St. Johns County.

Application: Students go through an enrollment process and if accepted, students are given a customized course schedule to meet their academic goals and career interests. The application can be found on the school's website.
